CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

30 June 1953

Mr. James S. Lay
Executive Secretary
National Security Council
302-A Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Lay:

General Charles P. Cabell, Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency, through Mr. Robert Amory, Jr., Assistant Deputy Director/Intelligence, has instructed me to forward to you the enclosed report "Report of the Advanced Contact Group Meeting held at Holloman Air Force Base, N.M.", dated June 24, 1953. ← see CIA 5137/olden 31-3

Per your instructions the report was prepared by the senior staff of the SO, OSI, ORE, and designated representatives of the government. The report was carefully reviewed and approved by the Director of Central Intelligence, Mr. Allen W. Dulles, with the support and concurrence of the IAC, and the intelligence agencies of the armed forces.

Also, as instructed no copies of this report were made. All notes, audio/visual and still photography of the meeting will be supplied to the National Security Council only when directed by you or one of your designated alternates with the proper clearance.

Sincerely yours,

RICHARD D. DRAIN
Secretary
Intelligence Advisory Committee
